Land of confusion - Disturbed

I must have dreamed a thousand dreams Been haunted by a million screams But I can hear the marching feet They're moving into the street Now, did you read the news today? They say the danger has gone away But I can see the fire's still alight They're burning into the night There's too many men, too many people Making too many problems And there's not much love to go around Can't you see this is the land of confusion? This is the world we live in And these are the hands we're given Use them and let's start trying To make it a place worth living in Oh, Superman, where are you now? When every thing's gone wrong somehow? Men of steel, these men of power I'm losing control by the hour This is the time, this is the place So we look for the future But there's not much love to go around Tell me why this is the land of confusion This is the world we live in And these are the hands we're given Use them and let's start trying To make it a place worth living in I remember long ago When the sun was shining And all the stars were bright All through the night In the wake up this madness, As I held you tight So long ago I won't be coming home tonight

My generation will put it right
We're not just making promises
That we know we'll never keep
There's too many men, too many people
Making too many problems
And there's not much love to go around
Can't you see this is the land of confusion?
Now, this is the world we live in
And these are the hands we're given
Use them and let's start trying
To make it a place worth fighting for
This is the world we live in
And these are the names we're given
Stand up and let's start showing
Just where our lives are going to
