

Yayo – Lana Del Rey

I like the snake on your tattoo
I like the Ivy and the Ink blue,
Yayo, yeah you, yayo
You have to take me right now
From this dark trailer park
Life now, yayo, how now, yayo
Put me onto your black motorcycle
Fifties baby doll dress for my 'I do'
It only takes two hours to Nevada
I wear your sparkle
You call me your mama
Let me put on a show for you daddy
Let me put on a show
Let me put on a show for you tiger,
Let me put on a show
I need you like
A baby when I hold you
Like a drug
Like I told you
Yayo, yes you, yayo
Put me onto your black motorcycle
Fifties baby doll dress for my 'I do'
It only takes two hours to Nevada
I wear your sparkle
You call me your mama
Let me put on a show for you daddy
Let me put on a show
Let me put on a show for you tiger
Let me put on a show
Hello Heaven
You are a tunnel lined with yellow lights
On a dark night (Dark night)
Yayo, yes you, yayo
Put me onto your black motorcycle
Fifties baby doll dress for my 'I do'
It only takes two hours to Nevada

I wear your sparkle
You call me your mama
Let me put on a show for you daddy
Let me put on a show
Let me put on a show for you tiger
Let me put on a show
