She used to be mine - Sara Bareilles

It's not simple to say that most days, I don't recognize me, Taht these shoes and this apron, That place and its patrons Have taken more than I gave them It's not easy to know I'm not anything like I used to be Although it's true I was never Attention's sweet center, I still remember that girl She's imperfect, but she tries She is good, but she lies She is hard on herself She is broken and won't ask fo help She is messy, but she's kind She is lonely most of the time She is all of this, mixed up And baked in a beautiful pie She is gone, but she used to be mine And it's not what I asked for Sometimes life just slips in Through a back door, And carves out a person, And makes you believe it's all true, And now I've got you You're not what I asked for If I'm honest, I know I would give it all Back for a chance to start over, And rewrite an ending or two For that girl that I knew Who was reckless just enough Who gets hurt, but who learns How to toughen up when she's bruised And gets used by a man who can't love And then she'll get stuck, And be scared of

The life that's inside her,
Getting stronger each day
'Til it fin'lly reminds her
To fight just a little
To bring back the fire in her eyes
That's been gone, but used to be mine
Oh, it used to be mine
She is messy, but she's kind
She is lonely most of the time
She is all of this, mixed up
And baked in a beautiful pie
She is gone, but she used to be mine
