

First time – The Kelly Family

Today
For the first time
For the first time
You took
My hand
Today
For the first time
Touched a warm heart
What a lucky girl

'cause you opened your heart
And you gave it to me
So don't tell me that
You don't love me

You opened your heart
And you gave it to me
So don't tell me that
You don't need me

For me,
For me
You're the one,
You're the world
Someone
Is anyone there
My body needs warmth
It's a mad
Mad world
Today
For the first time
I heard my heart stop
As he flew
Away

Open your heart

And give it to me,
And don't tell me that
You don't love me
Open your heart
And give it to me
And don't tell me that
You don't need me

Sometimes
I just fall and break
Sometimes
It just overflows
I can't take no more
I can't take no more
No more

Open your heart
And give it to me,
And don't tell me that
You don't love me
Open your heart
And give it to me
And don't tell me that
You don't need me

Tonight
For the first time
All the stars shine
But you're the brightest one
My love
