

Broken sleep – Agnes Obel

Ooh ooh ah, ooh ooh ah
Broken sleep, all too human
A malady
It's gazing through when I
Dream me a dream soft as a pillow
Dream me a dream
Dream me a dream
Dream me a dream
Dream me a dream
Dream me a dream
Shapes of smoke, all too human
They grow like titans
I would like to fall, silence every call
(Would you level me with a dream?)
If I will fall, fall, fall, fall
I would like to fall (Fall asleep)
Silence every call
(Would you level me with a dream?)
If I will fall, fall, I will fall, fall
Twisted rope defies all I know (Ooh)
It holds my reason
Dream me a dream soft as a pillow
Dream me a dream
Dream me a dream
Dream me a dream
Dream me a dream
Dream me a dream
Sea of trees calling humans
Hang like leaves from the willow
I would like to fall, silence every call
(Would you level me with a dream?)
If I will fall, fall, fall, fall
I would like to fall (Fall asleep)
Silence every call
(Would you level me with a dream?)
If I will fall, fall, I will fall, fall

Take my word for it
Ooh, in the dark, in the dark
In the dark, words can follow
