

This Is The World We Live In – Alcazar

Somebody's full of hate
His faith is all about deserting
Too busy thinking 'bout the pain
To bother checking why it's hurting
So come on make it right tonight
Gotta get in the light
Doesn't matter who you are
When you're moving up with Alcazar
This is the world we live in
And these are the hands we're giving
Use them and let's start trying
To make it a place worth living in
This is the world we live in
And these are the hands we're giving
Use them and let's start trying
To make it a place worth living in
When you're moving up with Alcazar
(Moving grooving moving)
When you're moving up with Alcazar
(Moving grooving)
Like a circle made of flames
No telling where it started burning
Oh, for every fire you contain
A new one keeps the circle turning
So come on make it right tonight
Gotta get in the light
Doesn't matter who you are
When you're moving up with Alcazar
This is the world we live in
And these are the hands we're giving
Use them and let's start trying
To make it a place worth living in
This is the world we live in
And these are the hands we're giving
Use them and let's start trying
To make it a place worth living in

Moving

Moving grooving

Moving

Moving groovning

Doesn't matter who you are

When you're moving up with Alcazar

This is the world we live in

And these are the hands we're giving

Use them and let's start trying

To make it a place worth living in

This is the world we live in

And these are the hands we're giving

Use them and let's start trying

To make it a place worth living in

(Moving)

When you're moving up with Alcazar

(Moving up – when we're moving)

(Moving grooving moving)

When you're moving up with Alcazar

When you're moving up with Alcazar
