

Outrunning Karma – Alec Benjamin

Outrunning karma

That boy, he's such a charmer

All the bugs and their larva

Follow him out to Colorado

Ten dozen hearts in a bag

Their bodies lying

He'll drag them down to Colorado

A modern desperado

And he'll race for miles through the night

He runs because he knows he cannot hide

He's never gonna make it

All the poor people he's forsaken

Karma is always gonna chase him for his lies

It's just a game of waiting

From the church steeple down to Satan

Karma, there's really no escape until he dies

Outrunning karma

That boy can't run no farther

It's the last days of Sparta

Follow him down to meet Apollo

And he'll brace for battle in the night

He'll fight because he knows he cannot hide

He's never gonna make it

All the poor people he's forsaken

Karma is always gonna chase him for his lies

It's just a game of waiting

From the church steeple down to Satan

Karma, there's really no escape until he dies

La-la-la-la-la

La-la-la-la-la

La-la-la-la-la

La-la

La-la-la-la-la

La-la-la-la-la

La-la-la-la-la

La-la

He's never gonna make it
All the poor people he's forsaken
Karma is always gonna chase him for his lies
It's just a game of waiting
From the church steeple down to Satan
Karma, there's really no escape until he dies
La-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la
La-la
