

Only One – Alex Band

My eyes are painted red
The canvas of my soul
Is slowly breaking down again
Today I heard the news
The story's getting old
When will we see the end?

Of the days we bleed
For what we need
To forgive, forget, move on
Cause we've got

One life to live
One love to give
One chance to keep from falling
One heart to break
One soul to take us
Not forsake us
Only One
Only One

The writing's on the wall
Those who came before
Left pictures frozen still in time
You say you want it all
But whose side you fighting for?
I sit and wonder why

There are nights, we sleep
While others they weep
With regret, repent, be strong
Cause we've got

One life to live
One love to give
One chance to keep from falling

One heart to break
One soul to take us
Not forsake us
Only One
Only One

Just you and I
Under one sky

One life to live
One love to give
One chance to keep from falling
One heart to break
One soul to take us
Not forsake us
Only one

One life to live
One love to give
One chance to keep from falling
Only one
One heart to break
One soul to take us
Not forsake us
Only one
Only one
