

No More Tears On The Dancefloor – Anders & Fahrenkrog

No more tears
On the dancefloor
No more crying like
You wanna be heard
Come on dance away
The heartbreak
No more crazy, crazy love
Ooh, no matter how I try,
There's a lingering
Of love at the door
But each time I wanna let you in
I know it's only gonna
End like before
All the lonely people
Reaching for the sun
Is there love after leaving
When there's nowhere left to run
No more tears
On the dancefloor
No more crying like
You wanna be heard
Come on dance away
The heartbreak
No more crazy, crazy love
No more tears
On the dancefloor
Come on rock away
The love sick blues
No more crying after midnight
No more crazy, crazy love
Ooh, no matter where I turn
There's an emptiness of love
In my heart
And it's you who said
We'd live forever

Now I'm standing here
Alone in the dark
All the saddest love songs
Like in a symphony in my head
I could choose
To keep on loving a ghost
Or make new memories instead
No more tears
On the dancefloor
No more crying like
You wanna be heard
Come on danc away
The heartbreak
No more crazy, crazy love
No more tears
On the dancefloor
Come on rock away
The love sick blues
No more, baby no more
Baby no more tears
On the dancefloor
Baby no more, baby no more
Baby no more tears
On the dancefloor
No more tears
On the dance floor
Come on dance away
The heartbreak
No more crazy, crazy love
There's an emptiness
Of love in my heart
And it's you who said
We'd live forever
Now I'm standing here
Alone in the dark
