

Where I Am – Anja Nissen

(Laying down my armour)
(Laying down my guard)
You're lost in my game,
Your love is repeating
Always around,
You're never holding me down
I know who you are,
True colours are showing
Though my heart's bare
I'll show you care
Putting up my walls so I'll last better
Dunno why I do it because we're together
Always holding back from you
It's hard my mind
Tonight I'm gonna try for you real hard
To show you all the love I've held inside
Show you all the love I've held inside
Let's do it right
Tonight I'm gonna show you,
Show you what you've done
I'm laying down my armour,
Laying down my guard
Tonight I'm gonna hold you closer than before
So you know where I am,
So you know where I am
I've known it's not right,
Just couldn't reveal it
Always closing up tight and never releasing
I've prayed and I've feared to love,
But you never let me go
I've held it in my heart
And now I'm letting you go
Tonight I'm gonna show you,
Show you what you've done
I'm laying down my armour,
Laying down my guard

Tonight I'm gonna hold you closer than before
So you know where I am,
So you know where I am
Putting up my walls so I'll last better
Dunno why I do it because we're together
Tonight I'm gonna try for you real hard
To show you all the love I've held inside
Show you all the love I've held inside
Let's do it right
Tonight I'm gonna show you,
I'm laying down my armour,
Laying down my guard
So you know where I am,
So you know where I am
So you know where I am
(So you know where I am,
(so you know where I am)
So you know where I am
(So you know where I am)
Oh, so you know where I am
