Where I Am - Anja Nissen

(Laying down my armour) (Laying down my guard) You're lost in my game, Your love is repeating Always around, You're never holding me down I know who you are, True colours are showing Though my heart's bare I'll show you care Putting up my walls so I'll last better Dunno why I do it because we're together Always holding back from you It's hard my mind Tonight I'm gonna try for you real hard To show you all the love I've held inside Show you all the love I've held inside Let's do it right Tonight I'm gonna show you, Show you what you've done I'm laying down my armour, Laying down my guard Tonight I'm gonna hold you closer than before So you know where I am, So you know where I am I've known it's not right, Iust couldn't reveal it Always closing up tight and never releasing I've prayed and I've feared to love, But you never let me go I've held it in my heart And now I'm letting you go Tonight I'm gonna show you, Show you what you've done I'm laying down my armour,

Laying down my guard

Tonight I'm gonna hold you closer than before So you know where I am, So you know where I am Putting up my walls so I'll last better Dunno why I do it because we're together Tonight I'm gonna try for you real hard To show you all the love I've held inside Show you all the love I've held inside Let's do it right Tonight I'm gonna show you, Show you what you've done I'm laying down my armour, Laying down my guard Tonight I'm gonna hold you closer than before So you know where I am, So you know where I am So you know where I am (So you know where I am, (so you know where I am) So you know where I am (So you know where I am) Oh, so you know where I am
