

Tonight – ANN WINSBORN

I don't believe
I'm standing on my feet again
It must be real
And everything will find it's way

When the love has turned it's back at me a
Ngels here there's no fear and
I have to find my strength again
I'm sure that I know

Tonight angels fly tonight
Tonight angels shines tonight

When the love has turned it's back at me a
Ngels here there's no fear and
I have to find my strength again
I'm sure that I know

This is who I am
The one that's carrying all inside
I'm not the same who goes around
And tries to hide

When the love has turned it's back at me a
Ngels here there's no fear and
I have to find my strength again
I'm sure that I know

Tonight angels fly tonight
Tonight angels shines tonight

Tonight angels fly tonight
Tonight angels shines tonight

When the love has turned it's back at me a
Ngels here there's no fear and
I have to find my strength again
I'm sure that I know

Tonight angels fly tonight
