

Can't wait – Anna yvette

If I had known then what I know now
I wouldn't have said what I said
I took the long road, thought I'd be better on my own
Sometimes what's right is wrong instead

Cause I was too young
And I didn't understand that
You were my one
And I can't wait to see you again

I can't wait, I can't wait, I can't wait
I can't wait, I can't wait, I can't wait

And I'm just pleading when your heart's bleeding
And all you can see is red
Til you discover it is within each other
To forgive and make amends

If I had known then what I know now
I took the long road, thought I'd be better on my own
Sometimes what's right is wrong instead

Cause I was too young
And I didn't understand that
You were my one
And I can't wait to see you again

Oooh
I can't wait, I can't wait, I can't wait

Cause I was too young
And I didn't understand that
You were my one
And I can't wait to see you again
I can't wait, I can't wait, I can't wait
I can't wait, I can't wait, I can't wait

Oooh oooooh And I can't wait to see you again
