

Perfect angel eyes – Annihilator

I gotta tell you
What's on my mind
The time that I just spent with you
Never felt this good
It's never felt so right
I hope you feel the same way too
But the darkness that you see
In your perfect angel eyes
And all the pain throughout the years
Your smile and that pretty face
But I see through your disguise
Let me wipe away your tears
You beautiful inside
And outside too
A new beginning me and you
But the darkness that you see
Through your perfect angel eyes
And all the pain throughout the years
Your smile and that pretty face
But i see through your disguise
Let me wipe away your tears
I hope you can turn to me
In your darker days
When you're feeling all alone
I know our love is strong
Just cannot leave tonight
The time has finally come
To spread your wings and fly
The darkness that you see
Through your perfect angel eyes
And all the pain throughout the years
Your smile and that pretty face
But I see through your disguise
The dark is seen
Through those perfect angel eyes
Just let me take away the fear

That smile in your pretty face
Like a shiny star at night
Let me wipe away your tears
