

Welcome To Wonderland – Anson Sebara

Welcome to Wonderland, we got it all
Potions and pastries that make you grow tall
Forrests and cottages, castles and cards that can talk
Welcome to Wonderland, look where you're at Maddest of hatters, the Cheshire Cat
Magical cabins and lovely white rabbits with clocks

Dancing through a dream
Underneath the stars
Laughing till the morning comes
Everyone that leaves has a heavy heart
Oh, Wonderland, I love

Welcome to Wonderland, I'll be your guide
Holding your hand under sapphire skies
Let's go exploring or we could just go for a walk
Welcome to Wonderland
Where should we go?
There's a tea party along down the road
Make an appearance and maybe they'll sing us a song

Dancing through a dream
Underneath the stars
Laughing till the morning comes
Everyone that leaves has a heavy heart
Oh, Wonderland, I love

Nothing around here is quite as it seems
Not sure if anything is real or a dream
And the only thing sure from the start
Is the song that's inside of your heart
Don't let it leave

If this was a dream then at least I've got Memories for when morning comes

Now that I must leave with a heavy heart
Oh, Wonderland, I love
