

The One – AreQue

Yesterday I saw a perfect sky
Yesterday you showed me how to cry
Let me be with you again
But you've just forget my name
Yesterday I could fly into space
Yesterday the things were right in place
Let me be with you again
But you've just forget my name

I don't wanna cry for someone else
Just you, sugar
I don't wanna hurt from anything
That's not you and I
Feel like I have caught your scent
But you are not in there
Feel like I've seen a trace
I don't wanna cry for someone else
Just you, sugar
I don't wanna hurt from anything
That's not you and I
Feel like I have caught your scent
But you are not in there
Feel like I've seen a trace

Yesterady the colour of my life
Was a navy blue inside your eyes
Let me be with you again
But you've just forget my name

I don't wanna cry for someone else
Just you, sugar
I don't wanna hurt from anything
That's not you and I
Feel like I have caught your scent
But you are not in there
Feel like I've seen a trace

I don't wanna cry for someone else
Just you, sugar
I don't wanna hurt from anything
That's not you and I
Feel like I have caught your scent
But you are not in there
Feel like I've seen a trace
