

How I Look On You – Ariana Grande

Say you want me anyway, do ya?
You can handle all this fame, can ya?
Like me just the way I are
Just the way I, way I are, yeah, yeah
You would like me anyway, would ya?
You won't let me get away, won't ya?
Like me just the way I are
Say you don't wanna be a star, do you?
We step out on a Friday night
New front page, it's a cute headline
I made you a thing, like, "Who's that guy?"
Say you ain't in it for the spotlight, boy
I don't believe no one no more
Boy, show me what you're in it for
Been on the low
when it comes to love
Said, "Do you like how I look
or just how I look on you?"
Cover on a magazine in just two weeks
"Boy to Watch",
Ain't he just, just too sweet?
Now he ain't even got time for me
I only see him on the big screen
Woke up at like five,
and boy, you wasn't here
When it's my fault,
she even knows that you're there
Was I just a transition?
Boy, remember where ya come from
We step out on a Friday night
New front page, it's a cute headline
I made you a thing, like, "Who's that guy?"
Say you ain't in it for the spotlight, boy
I don't believe no one no more
Boy, show me what you're in it for (In it for)

Been on the low when it comes to love
Said, "Do you like how I look
Or just how I look on you?"
How I look on you
How I look, how I look on you
How I look, how I look on you, oh yeah
How I look, how I look on you
How I look, how I look on you
How I look, how I look on you
How I look, how I look on you
