

Only 1 – Ariana Grande

I want you, I want you
I want you, I want you
I want you, I want you
Let me introduce myself
Let me introduce myself
Let me introduce myself
Lookin' in your eyes, makes me wonder how
I got so much time,
With you and there's more around
I know all the competition that's after you
So I get to thinking,
Is this too good to be true
That we're living
In a fairytale no malice in our lives
Baby oh, it's hard to believe
All the love you have inside is only mine
That's how I know
I can't, be your, only one
No I can't, be your only one
'Cause you look twice as good
As anyone I ever met
And your love is three times better,
How could anyone forget
No I can't
As I'm layin' down, with you every night
It still gets to me,
That you remain by my side
I ain't saying that I'm not deservin' of you
But I was dreaming, bigger than I ever knew
I wished for living
In a fairytale no malice and no lies
Baby oh, it's hard to believe
That the love you have inside is only mine
That's how I know
I can't, be your, only one

No I can't, be your only one
'Cause you look twice as good
As anyone I ever met
And your love is three time better,
How could anyone forget
No I can't
Only one
Be your only one
Only one
