

Bloody angel – Avatar

How can I sleep
When everyone else turns to dust?
How can I breathe
When my mouth is filled with their ashes?
Another day lost
Trying to exit the program
I've seen enough
To feed a psychosis for a lifetime
Bloody angel
Where did it start?
This force is too strong to resist
Where is too far?
All I did was trying to save them
Haunted by screams
Chasing me back to my childhood
I cannot flee
I've got tormentors for a lifetime
Come, bloody angel
Break off your chains and
Look what I've found in the dirt
Pale battered body
It seems she was struggling
Something is wrong with this world
Bloody angel
All that I know
I'm willing to give it away
All that I love
Disappeared like sand in the ocean
Remember their lives
Lost within withering pages
Trying to hide
But I see tragedies through our lifetime
Bloody angel
Come, bloody angel
Break off your chains and
Look what I found in the dirt

Pale battered body
It seems she was struggling
Something is wrong with this world
Fierce, bloody angel
The blood is on your hands
Why did you come to this world?
Everybody turns to dust
Everybody turns to dust
Everybody turns to dust
Everybody turns to dust
Bloody angel
Bloody angel
