

Roman Sky – Avenged Sevenfold

As the embers rose
Through the Roman sky
Tell me were you calm
When they took your life?
Just before you go,
Tell us how the heavens flow
Weightless evermore,
As you walk beyond that door
Shine forever true
Shared with us the world
Well before your time
Though they took your voice
Words forever shine
Just before you go,
Tell us how the heavens flow
Weightless evermore,
As you walk beyond that door
Shine forever true
As they spoke your fate
A fearless man replied
"As you will sentence me,
Your fear is beyond mine"
Just before you go,
Tell us how the heavens flow
Weightless evermore,
As you walk beyond that door
Shine forever true
