

Naika – before he falls

Before he Falls

[Verse 1]

There's a little boy, in a little house

He loves attention

And in his loving home when the lights go out

He wants to play

He says "Look at me mommy, look at me"

"I am flying can you see?"

But the little boy hears his mother cry

It's all familiar

And with this noise outside he knows where

To

Hid

E

And holds her close

She says "Look at me baby, look at me"

"In your heart I'll always be"

[Chorus]

Stop the war

Stop the war before he falls

Stop the war

He's a dreamer

He is pure

[Verse 2]

When the darkness clears

His home disappears

The world is turning

And through the cloudy sky a man opens his

Eyes

And yells, and prays

He screams "Look at me, boy, look at me"

"Can you hear me can you breathe?"

But paralyzed from the scene

Not one tear falls on his cheek

[Outro]

Another little girl in another house

She loves affection

And in her loving home when the lights go out

She wants to play

She wants to play
