

Agonised – Benediction

Uhhh

Agonising road to ruin

Fright filled roots of soul

Iconoclastic nightmare watching

Grief now uncontrolled

Uncertain loss, my pain -frustration

Now to reign regret

Wreaking havoc, near undoing

The trauma that dejects

Desolated mindful obstruct

Shattered scream to loudly erupt

Pierce the night, a resounding crash

Lying dormant, bleeding and gashed

Agonised

Innocence removed fleetingly

Childhood replayed

Remembering the best of times

Still remain dismayed

Near loss of one who's so close

Loving relative Wishing

I could turn the clock back

Lose my will to live

Desolated mindful obstruct

Shattered scream to loudly erupt

Pierce the night, a resounding crash

Lying dormant, bleeding and gashed

Driven to distraction grossly

Morbid mind, it roars

Taken from this mortal coil?

Is the Reaper at the door?

Linear thinking - positive

Yet defeat never stops

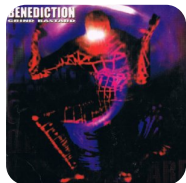

Overriding all the senses

Heart begins to drop

Desolated mindful obstruct

Shattered scream to loudly erupt

Pierce the night,a resoundning crash
Lying dormant, bleeding and gashed
Agonised
Fear the worst, irrational
Wounds are unsevere
Recovery is imminent
Temped fate now cleared
Relief bringing but emotion
Tears begin to flow
A life was spared from grisly ending
A life still yet to grow
