

If U Want Me – Blanka

Oh you caught me in the city light
With your pretty eyes
Kinda came off cheeky
Don't know if it was the fireflies
But it felt so right
I was falling for the way you talked
And you fancy car
We were going places
If only I had known
You were nothing but a little
Runaway
Big mistake
Good first date
Pretty face
Such a waste
Now you're coming back please
If you want me
Tell me
Why'd you let me go?
Think it's funny
Well I'm not laughing
At this joke
I can do better
And you can go cry
For all I know
If you want me
You should have
Tried a little more
U na na na na
U na na na na
U na na na na
You should have
Tried a little more
Did you ever really care for me
Baby honestly
I don't think you felt it

When you said that it was meant to be
I believed your lies (yeah)
I thought that I could fight
For you and I
If only I had known
You were nothing but a little
Runaway
Big mistake
Good first date
Pretty face
Such a waste
I was nothing but a little
Heart to break
In your game
Day to day
Price to claim
What a shame
Now you're coming back,
Please
If you want me
Tell me
Why'd you let me go?
Think it's funny
Well I'm not laughing
At this joke
I can do better
And you can go cry
For all I know
If you want me
You should have
Tried a little more
U na na na na
U na na na na
U na na na na
You should have
Tried a little more
Some days
When the memory plays
Oh it hurts even though
I moved on

Too late,
Let me put this straight
It's the end of the show
You'll never ever get
With me
If you want me
Tell me
Why'd you let me go?
Think it's funny
Well I'm not laughing
At this joke
I can do better
And you can go cry
For all I know
If you want me
You should have
Tried a little more
U na na na na
U na na na na
U na na na na
You should have
Tried a little more
U na na na na
U na na na na
U na na na na
You should have
Tried a little more
