Mirror Mirror – Blind Guardian Acoustic - Guitar & Violin by Thomas Zwijsen & Wik

Far, far beyond the Island We dwelt in shades of twilight Through dread and weary days Through grief and endless pain It lies unknown The land of mine A hidden gate To save us from the shadow fall The Lord of Water spoke In the silence words of wisdom I've seen the end of all Be aware the storm gets closer Mirror mirror on the wall True hope lies beyond the coast You're a damned kind can't you see That the winds will change Mirror mirror on the wall True hope lies beyond the coast You're a damned kind can't you see That tomorrow bears insanity Gone's the wisdom of a thousand years A world in fire, in chains and fear Leads me to a place so far Deep down it lies my secret vision I'll better keep it safe Shall I leave my friends alone Hidden in my twilight hall I know the world is lost in fire Sure there is no way to turn it Back to the old days Of bliss and cheerful laughter We're lost in barren lands Caught in the running flames

How shall we leave the lost road

Alone

Time's getting short so follow me A leader's task so clearly To find a path out of the dark Mirror mirror on the wall True hope lies beyond the coast You're a damned kind can't you see That the winds will change Mirror mirror on the wall True hope lies beyond the coast You're a damned kind can't you see That the winds will change Even though The storm calmed down The bitter end Is just a matter of time Shall we dare the dragon Merciless he's poisoning our hearts How shall we leave the lost road Time's getting short so follow me A leader's task so clearly To find a path out of the dark Mirror mirror on the wall True hope lies beyond the coast You're a damned kind can't you see That the winds will change Mirror mirror on the wall True hope lies beyond the coast You're a damned kind can't you see That the winds will change
