

Waves – Blondfire

You hear them when you try to fall asleep
They crash to the shore, they come from the Deep
As sure as the sun will rise, the sun will Set
You taste the salt the closer you get
Waves
Picking you up
Pushing you down
They're always around
Waves
Just like dream
Silver and green
We live in between
They can carry you all the way to me
They can pull you out to the deep blue sea
Oh waves, there are waves
Empires will crumble to the sand
All that you love can slip through your hand
But you must face the ocean once again
Follow the tides, wherever you've been
Waves
Picking you up
Pushing you down
They're always around
Waves
Just like dream
Silver and green
We live in between
They can carry you all the way to me
They can pull you out to the deep blue sea
Oh waves, there are waves
Waves
Picking you up
Pushing you down
They're always around

Waves

Just like dream

Silver and green

We live in between

They can carry you all the way to me

They can pull you out to the deep blue sea

Oh waves, there are waves
