If I ever have to leave then it doesn't matter where I go now
I'll be your love

Baby if you let me breathe
Even when I'm far away then
I have no doubt
I'll be your love

Not not nothing ever dies
I want to believe and to love now
But I don't know how

Wha wha what I wanna try
Is to find a map to your soul now
Your soul now honey

De alto Cedro voy para Marcane
Llego a Cueto voy para Mayari

De alto Cedro voy para Marcane
Llego a Cueto voy para Mayari

If you're gonna wait for me
I can guarantee that
I'll be your love
I have no doubt

Baby I don't really know where the road is leading me but
I have no doubt
I'll be your love

Not not nothing ever dies
I want to believe and to love now
But I don't know how

Wha wha what I wanna try
Is to find a map to your soul now
Your soul now honey

Yeah, uh
I can only be on ma way to nowhere
You were stoppin' me
But I said "I don't care"
When is the time for us? Maybe not in this life
We'll not win this fight
With the runnin' time, right?
So I'm takin' ma journey to the past
Maybe that's the best
Baby that's the last, uh
One step... one, two, three
When I'm in the same place,
You know I can't breathe
Uh, uh, yeah, so
That's ma own journey
Into the crazy time
I think I'm really, really gonna lose ma mind!
'Cause we're so far apart!
And there's no way for a new start for us!
So that's ma way to nowhere
North and east, south or west
I wonder if some day I'm gonna pass this test
So baby fuck this life!
Are we gonna survive?

I wanna somebody, I need that somebody
I wanna somebody to lean on
I wanna somebody, I wanna, I wanna
I need somebody to hold on

I am still on the way
Some day I'm gonna stay
Can you hear the pain in my voice?
I am breaking my chain
Do you feel the same?
Can you hear the pain in my song?
