

Reflection – Blue Cafe

Reflection of a love over time
Shows the joy and the beauty of life
Reflection of a love over time
Reflection of a love in my life

You know why I am hanging on all the while
Is braking me, breaking me
You know why I rise and fall
Standing through it all

Life, I love you and hate you
I cry when I came seem to get bye
Oh life, see good in what you do
Oh life, we'll be fine

Reflection of a love over time
It fills those empty spaces deep inside
Reflection of a love over time
Shining bright all the star in the sky

You know why I am hanging on all the while
Is braking me, breaking me
You know why I rise and fall
Standing through it all

Life I love you
And hate you
I cry when I came seem to get bye
Oh I see good in what you do
Oh life, we'll be fine

What you do
Still love you!
I don't care
I don't care
What you do

Still love you
I don't care

Life I love you
And hate you
I cry when I came seem to get bye
Oh I see good in what you do
Oh life, we'll be fine
