

Scrape (Acoustic) – Blue Stahli

They force it in and you swallow
Black words and cheap goodbyes
I'll burn it all just to light your eyes
Skin-tight rewards and vendetta
Ground zero in a desperate life
I love the violence between your thighs
Bring it down to the wire
Parasite, oh messiahs
Set them all on fire
And scrape
There is an art to infliction
Head-spill and homicide
I'll burn it all just to light your eyes
All that you dream of, they're ruined
My sweet little libertine
We'll fix it all with gasoline
Bring it down to the wire
Parasite, oh messiahs
Set them all on fire
And scrape
