

Boy And The Ghost – Tarja

The streets are empty
Inside it's warm
His hands are shaking
They locked the door
A voice is calling
Asking to get in
All he wanted was a toy
All he needed was a gentle heart
To lead him through the dark
When his dreams are running wild
Boy and the ghost
Fire's not burning
The lights went out
The lights went out
Big family dinner
The untold tale
Their eyes are sparkling
On his frozen face
Angel's calling
Asking to get in
All he wanted was a toy
All he needed was a gentle heart
To lead him through the dark
When there's nowhere left to fall
Boy and the ghost
His eyes are burning
The lights went out
The dream is on
Wake up, wake up:
There's an Angel in the snow
Look up, look up:
It's a frightened dead boy
With so much hate, such bad dreams
He could have seen
The toy's the key, but no one saw, no one saw
All he wanted was a toy

All he needed was a bleeding heart
To lead him through the dark
Boy and the ghost
Nowhere to hide
The silence is hurting
Inside it's cold
Sleep or die
Nowhere to go,
Nowhere to hide
His light went out
