Boy And The Ghost - Tarja

The streets are empty

Inside it's warm

His hands are shaking

They locked the door

A voice is calling

Asking to get in

All he wanted was a toy

All he needed was a gentle heart

To lead him through the dark

When his dreams are running wild

Boy and the ghost

Fire's not burning

The lights went out

The lights went out

Big family dinner

The untold tale

Their eyes are sparkling

On his frozen face

Angel's calling

Asking to get in

All he wanted was a toy

All he needed was a gentle heart

To lead him through the dark

When there's nowhere left to fall

Boy and the ghost

His eyes are burning

The lights went out

The dream is on

Wake up, wake up:

There's an Angel in the snow

Look up, look up:

It's a frightened dead boy

With so much hate, such bad dreams

He could have seen

The toy's the key, but no one saw, no one saw

All he wanted was a toy

All he needed was a bleeding heart
To lead him through the dark
Boy and the ghost
Nowhere to hide
The silence is hurting
Inside it's cold
Sleep or die
Nowhere to go,
Nowhere to hide
His light went out
