

Maybe – Brainstorm

My body, my hand
My heaven, my land
My guardian angel is mine
And you say:
My dreams, my head
My sex, my bed
And it's my Corona with lime
But then I say:
Maybe we could divide it in two
Maybe my animals live in your zoo
And you say:
My hate, my frown
My kingdom, my crown
My palace and court is mine
And you say:
My lights, my show
My years to grow
The time that I spend is fine
But then I say:
Maybe we could divide it in two
Maybe my animals live in your zoo
But then I say: maybe
Maybe I'm in love with you, you, you, you
And you say:
My coat, my hat
My bones, my fat
My zipper is shut by me
And you say:
My skin, my blood
My devil, my god
My freedom is what you see
But then I say:
Maybe we could divide it in two
Maybe my animals live in your zoo
But then I say: maybe
Maybe I'm in love with you, you, you, you

My beginning, my end
My nuclear bomb to pretend, to pretend
My beginning, my end
My nuclear bomb
But then I say:
