

Cinderella – Britney Spears

I used to be your girlfriend and I know I did it well

Oh yes you know its true

You called me Cinderella

All you had to do was yell and I'd be there for you

Here I am, so try to forgive me

I don't believe in fairy tales

Here we are with nothin' but honesty

I've had enough, I'm not gonna stay

I'm sorry for runnin' away like this

And I'm sorry I've already made my wish

Ahh

But Cinderella's got to go

From time to time I'd tried to tell

just what was on my mind

You told me not today

Come back, do that, where's Cinderella at?

Was all ya had to say

Here I am, so try to forgive me

I don't believe in fairy tales

Here we are with nothin' but honesty

I've had enough, I'm not gonna stay

I'm sorry for runnin' away like this

And I'm sorry I've already made my wish

Ahh

But Cinderella's got to go

I'm sorry just tryin' to live my life

Don't worry your gonna be alright

But Cinderella's got to go

To say I want you, You cast me under your spell

I did everything you wanted me to

But now I shall, break free from all your lies

I won't be blind you see, my love it can't be sacrificed

I won't return to thee

I won't return to thee

I'm sorry to say I'm running away now

Don't worry you will be alright

I'm runnin' away I've made up my mind now
Your gonna have to let me go
'Cause she's gotta go
I'm sorry for runnin' away like this
And I'm sorry I've already made my wish
But Cinderella's got to go
I'm sorry just tryin' to live my life
Don't worry your gonna be alright
But Cinderella's got to go
