

Hand Of Blood – Bullet For My Valentine

Ohhh

There goes my valentine again,
Soaked in red for what she said,
And now she's gone
Oh my god have I done it again,
There's a pulse and it's deafening
I can't help what I hear in my head,
It's the switch that I flick when she says
Hand of blood, I don't wanna feel
, my heart is breaking
Hand of blood, I don't wanna see
, my life is burning
I saw you look away
Is what you've seen too much to take
, or are you blind and seeing nothing,
I saw you run,
I saw you run away,
Is what I've done too much to take
Or are you scared of being nothing
There's a stain on my hand and it's red
Oh my god am I losing it
I can't help what
I've done or I said
It's the buttons
I push when he says
Hand of blood, I don't wanna feel,
My heart is breaking
Hand of blood, I don't wanna see,
My life is burning
I saw you look away
Is what you've seen too much to take,
Or are you blind and seeing nothing,
I saw you run
I saw you run away,
Is what I've done too much to
Take or are you scared of being nothing

I saw you look away
Is what you've seen too much to take,
Or are you blind and seeing nothing,
I saw you run
I saw you run away,
Is what I've done too much to take
Or are you scared of being nothing
