Cause you are young - C. C. Catch

Heartache, heartache, heart was gold Oh, he hurt you you - instant cold Lonely, lonely, you wasted years You're a winner with bad souvenirs You're a hero, you're a man You're a winner, take my hand

'Cause you are young
You will always be so strong
Hold on tight to your dreams, hold on
You are right, don't give up
(Baby, baby, baby)
'Cause you are young
You are right and you are wrong
You are a hero, next day you're done
So hold on to your dreams

All or nothing you can give
Live your life, love to live
Oh man, oh man, feel the night
Strong enough till the morning light
You're a hero, you're a man
You're too tough to lose this game

'Cause you are young
You will always be so strong
Hold on tight to your dreams, hold on
You are right, don't give up
(Baby, baby, baby)
'Cause you are young
You are right and you are wrong
You are a hero, next day you're done
So hold on to your dreams

'Cause you are young You will always be so strong Hold on tight to your dreams, hold on You are right, don't give up (Baby, baby, baby) 'Cause you are young You are right and you are wrong You are a hero, next day you're done So hold on to your dreams

(Baby, baby, baby)
'Cause you are you
Cause you are young
You are right and you are wrong
You are a hero, next day you're done
So hold on to your dreams
