

Ocean – Calvin Harris & Jessie Reyez

Sun is up,
Back to life, my eyes are open
And the last thing I remember was you holding me
The fact that I still love you in the morning
Tells me that your body might be home for me
We were dancing, we were wild
in the ocean
When the crowd is all around me, you're still all I see
And the way you lay me down
and break me open
Tells me that your body might be home for me
We were dancing, we were wild
In the ocean
Ocean,
Ocean
Love the way you lay me down
and break me open Open,
Open
We were dancing, we were wild
In the ocean
Ocean,
Ocean
Love the way you lay me down
and break me open
Open

In the ocean

Sun is up,
I'm back to life, my eyes are open
I could lay right here forever
if you're holding me It's the way you love me
even though I'm broken
Tells me that your body might be home for me
We were dancing flying high in the moment Looked around and when I found you, finally found peace
It's the way you fill me up with your emotion
Tells me that your body might be home for me
In the ocean
Ocean,
Ocean
and break me open
Open,
Open
In the ocean
Ocean,
Ocean
and break me open
Open
