

Long Goodbyes – Camel

Down by the lake
A warm afternoon
Breezes carry children's balloons
Once upon a time,
Not long ago,
She lived in a house by the grove
And she recalls the day,
When she left home

Long good-byes,
Make me so sad
I have to leave right now
And though I hate to go,
I know it's for the better
Long good-byes,
Make me so sad
Forgive my leaving now
You know I'll miss you so
And days we spent together

Long in the day
Moon on the rise
She sighs with a smile in her eyes
In the park,
It's late after all,
She sits and stares at the wall
And she recalls the day,
When she left home

Long good-byes,
Make me so sad
I have to leave right now
And though I hate to go,
I know it's for the better
Long good-byes,
Make me so sad

Forgive my leaving now
You know I'll miss you so
And days we spent together
