

One Night's Not Enough – c.c.catch

Every little thing's been said about it
Babe, you know you light up my day
Everybody hates to live without it
And I hope you don't go away
A pillow soaked with tears
I can't forget my fears
One night's not enough, can't you see
To get all my love away from me
One night's not enough, can't you see
Breaking up breaks my heart
One night's not enough (not enough),
Can't you see (can't you see)
Babe, if you will ever (will ever) set me
Free (set me free)
Then our love will break my heart forever
And ever
The way you laugh is very special to me
Maybe my dreams will come true
And I know, if you should ever leave me
I would never feel so brand new
Maybe behind your eyes
There will be back surprise
One night's not enough, can't you see
To get all my love away from me
One night's not enough, can't you see
Breaking up breaks my heart
One night's not enough (not enough),
Can't you see (can't you see)
Babe, if you will ever (will ever) set me
Free (set me free)
Then our love will break my heart forever
And ever
Love lost its meaning
It will never stop bleeding
One night's not enough (not enough), can't
You see (can't you see)

Babe, if you will ever (will ever) set me
Free (set me free)
Then our love will break my heart forever
And ever
Oh, my heart is breaking (ever and ever)
You find my tears awaking (ever and ever)
'Cause I feel so lonely (ever and ever)
You are my only (ever and ever)
Love lost its meaning (ever and ever)
