

Treason – CETI

When I see my face
In the mirror again
I see the days
Around me almost
Nothing
It was just mistake
My thoughts are lost somewhere
Too far
I know it's the end
What to say
Or to afraid?
Sleep in peace, time will come
I see the world around me
Which makes me fear
Only one word in my mind:
TREASON !!!
I live to fear to be lost
Maybe I will save
Maybe I will save just you
Living and running
Live against the wind
Don't believe in other place
Because you're away you are away
Stand up and shout
You need to stand up
Everything isn't lost
Time has come
Some voice is calling you
Start to walk forward
Believe in your destiny
Save your self
Living and running
Live against the wind
Don't believe in other place
Because you're away
Remember your name

Remember look behind
Remember live in peace
Remember
You don't know what to say
While standing face to face
With the non understood -
You feel the fear
Take your chance
Take the days
Take the moment
Run into your dreams
Living and running
Because you're away
Remember your name
Remember look behind
Remember live in peace
Remember
Which makes me fear
Only one word in my mind:
TREASON!
I live to fear to be lost
Maybe I will save
Maybe I will save just you
Living and running
Live against the wind
Because you're away
Remember your name
Remember look behind
Remember live in peace
Remember
Remember live in peace
Remember
