

UwU – Chevy

I'm startin' to feel some sort of way
You give me goosebumps every day
And when you look at me and smile I wanna say
"I think you're okay"
Your stupid face makes me insane
My heart feels like it's trapped up in cellophane
And everytime I try to unwrap the pain
I feel so ashamed
Oh but you don't know how I feel, mm
Its like everyday I'm runnin' uphill
Oh, why can't I just spit it out and tell you right now
That you're the one I want out loud?
I guess I'll stop here and not hint at all
That you're one I've fallen for
But if you ever think of me as anything more
I'll be here at your call
