

Haunted Heart (short version) – Christina Aguilera

There's no ground when you fall for me
You'll be fallin' for miles
I'm bewitched by your misery
But I love it when you smile
Let me know what you want from me
Whisper low in my ears
Before you try to get your hooks in me
I should warn you, my dear
My heart is a haunted house
Once you're in you ain't gettin' out
It's the trap you've been waitin' for
Ain't no windows, ain't no door
No escapin' the way you feel
It's like a dream but you hope it's real
My, my, my heart
My, my, my, my heart
Is a haunted
House!!

Yeeaaaah!!

Is a haunted hooouse!!
