You Are Unstoppable - Conchita Wurst

You don't know me, I don't know you That's what we tell ourself inside of our little heads We could never love again You don't know me, I don't know you That's what it's gonna be If you let yourself get in the way Of what the child inside you says And if you had another bad romance Give it another go It could be beautiful Wouldn't you like to know? Sometimes you just gotta leap – yeah Jump out and just feel the breeze – yeah You're stronger than you believe you are You are! Sometimes it's just gonna hurt – yeah But you gonna live and learn – yeah You're stronger than you believe you are You are unstoppable! So take a breath and just dive in Keep on climbing Scars are a part of you We can learn to understand Carry your heart in your hand And you will have another grand romance Like it's do or die Never giving in Always let your heart win Sometimes you just gotta leap – yeah Jump out and just feel the breeze – yeah You're stronger than you believe you are You are! Sometimes it's just gonna hurt – yeah But you gonna live and learn – yeah You're stronger than you believe you are

You are unstoppable!

Yeah we just wanna be loved
We just have to be loved
We're not getting enough
Sometimes you just gotta leap – yeah
Jump out and just feel the breeze – yeah
You're stronger than you believe you are
You are!
Sometimes it's just gonna hurt – yeah
But you gonna live and learn – yeah
You're stronger than you believe you are
You are unstoppable!

You don't know me, I don't know you
