

Hold Me Closer – Cornelia Jakobs

No need to apologize
'Cause there's nothing to regret
Well, this is not what I wanted
Guess all the good things come to an end
So baby, bye bye
Wish you the best
But most of all I wish
That I could love you less
Well maybe you're right
I'll find someone else
You say it isn't me
But when did that ever help?
Hold me closer
Although you'll leave before the sunrise
Might be bleeding, but don't you mind
I'll be fine
Oh, it kills me
I found the right one at the wrong time
But until the sunrise
Hold tight, hold tight
Maybe it happened too fast
I guess that I understand
You say that you never felt this way
For anyone
And that's why it scares you to death
So baby, bye bye
Know it's for the best
Still I can't see how that
Would ease the pain in my chest
Hold me closer
Although you'll leave before the sunrise
I'll be bleeding, but don't you mind
I'll be fine
Oh, it kills me
I found the right one at the wrong time
But until the sunrise

Can you just hold me tight?

I know I have to let go

But just give me the night

'Cause tomorrow will hurt

Hurt really bad

'Cause I'm about to lose

The best I ever had

Hold me closer

Although you'll leave before the sunrise

I'll be bleeding, but don't you mind

I'll be fine

Oh, it kills me

I found the right one at the wrong time

But until the sunrise

Can you just hold me tight?

But just give me the night

Can't you see that you

Found the right one at the wrong time?

It was just the wrong time

Hold tight, hold tight
