

All For Love (Giuseppe Ottaviani Remix) – Craig Connelly & Siskin

All for love
All for love
All for love
Let the cold winds blow
And the lightning strike
Everything full
Sail tonight
Let the stormers break
Wild waters high
Through the eye of the storm
We unite
Because love wants to feel everything
Because love wants to feel everything
All for love
All for love
All for love
All for love
All for love
All for love
All for love
All for love
All for love
