

Again – Crusher-p

I haven't been myself lately,
I don't blame you for not wanting to stay
Saying things that I don't mean,
Not meaning what I say
When it's good, it's so good,
When it's bad, it's SO BAD
Even when I knew what I had
What am I supposed to say,
When I end up driving everyone away?
Cause, I am on fire,
A crying, burning liar,
Seeing nothing, nothing, but myself,
And I'm the one with the lighter
Every inch of me is charred,
God, what happened to my heart?
I'm about to fall apart,
Again, again
And you're never coming back,
And I'm not okay with that,
And I should've never let
Myself get attached,
Again, again
Again, again
Again, again
Again, again
What's done is done,
And nothing's gonna change
I should be moving on,
But I still feel the same
And it's like
Every day is a
Fight for my life
To get some self control,
And when you've forgotten who I am,
It just feels, it just feels
I'm nobody at all

I found myself
Hitting the ground,
I held my breath
In case I'd drown
I should have known
When to let go
And when to see
Who I was being
Again, again, again
I am on fire,
A crying, burning liar,
Seeing nothing, nothing, but myself,
Every inch of me is charred,
God, what happened to my heart?
I'm about to fall apart,
Again, again
And you're never coming back,
And I'm not okay with that,
And I should've never let myself get
Every inch of me is charred,
God, what happened to my heart?
I'm about to fall apart,
Again, again
And you're never coming back,
And I'm not okay with that,
Myself get attached,
Again, again, again
Again, again, again
Again, again, again
Again, again, again
Again, again, again
Again, again, again
Again, again, again
Again, again
And you're never coming back,
And I'm not okay with that,
And I should've never let myself get attached

Whoa---/
Again, again
