

Next Summer – Damiano David

I thought that we had
Something good in our hands
In a minute, it just slipped away
So many things I didn't say
Before you threw it all away

I pretend I'm okay
But I'm lost and afraid
And nobody really understands
But now I'm dancing to a band
With all the demons in my head

Call me when he breaks
Your heart next summer
Baby, I'll be waiting here
Call me when you're all fucked up
My lover
I'll be there to lick your tears
You had to throw away our love
To find out
Nothing's as good as us
So call me when he breaks
Your heart next summer

"If you love, let 'em go"
It's a saying that I heard
But I don't know
If it works for me
So if I see you on my street
I'll know that it was meant to be

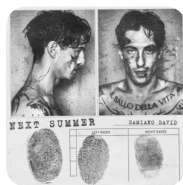

Do you still think of me
When you're under the sheets
Or does he give you everything?
Yeah
And I can see it on your face

That you were happier with me

So call me when he breaks
Your heart next summer
Baby, I'll be waiting here
Call me when you're all fucked up
My lover
I'll be there to lick your tears
You had to throw away our love
To find out nothings as good as us
So call me when he breaks
Your heart next summer

Tried everything under the sun
Every girl and every drug
It's never gonna be enough
'Cause you're the one

Call me when he breaks
Your heart next summer
Baby, I'll be waiting here
Call me when you're all fucked up
My lover
I'll be there to lick your tears
But since you threw away our love
Then maybe
Something's as good as us
I really hope he breaks
Your heart next summer

Słowa: Sarah Hudson, Jason Evigan, Damiano David, Steven Schick
Muzyka: Sarah Hudson, Jason Evigan, Damiano David, Steven Schick
Rok wydania: 2025
Płyta: Funny Little Fears