

Tokyo – Danny Saucedo

Warm and cold
You grab me down,
You lift me with your magic
New and old
I know your way but
I don't understand it
Steel and stone
A thousand years
Of history and future
Gold and cone
A lazy beam's creating this illusion
I can leave any day
But you're always gonna stay
On my mind
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Sleepless nights
My eyes are open but
I must be dreaming
You and I
We play it cool but underneath
We're steaming
You can run you can hide
But this roller coaster ride
Never stops
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo

You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
She's gonna do it to you
Ohh
I can leave any day
But you're always gonna stay
On my mind
And you can run you can hide
But this roller coaster ride
Never stops
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Ohh
