

Touch my heart – Danuta Lato

Where is the sun I'm waiting for?
Where is the one that I adore?
So hear me cry, where is your love?
I need emotion (I need emotion)
Ten thousand miles away from you
There is the girl that waits for you
So take a chance or I will die
I can't wait forever, take me to the life

Touchmy heart
Where's the man
Who will hold me and love me forever?
Touchmy love
Let me know that you want me
And let's stay together
Touchmy heart
Touchmy love

I'm sitting here, I'm all alone
I need to have you on the phone
I feel so cold, the night is gray
I'm so sad and lonely (so sad and lonely)
Where is the one I long to see?
Where are the nights of ecstasy?
So take a chance, don't make me cry
I can't wait forever, take me to the life
Touch my heart
Where's the man
Who will hold me and love me forever?
Touch my love
Let me know that you want me
and let's stay together
Touch my heart
Touch my love
Touch my heart
Where's the man

Who will hold me and love me forever?

Touch my love

Let me know that you want me

and let's stay together

Touch my heart

Touch my love

Touch my heart

Where's the man

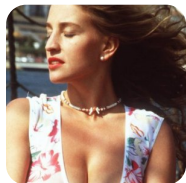

Who will hold me and love me forever?

Touch my love

Let me know that you want me

and let's stay together

Touch my heart
