

Hej hej (wersja po Angielsku) – Daria Zawiałow

I would like that so much,
To be history
In the air I float,
Don't be afraid
Without any wasted moments,
Not feeling anything
No calendars, no signs
The noise of betrayals
Every time,
I keep chasing,
And I don't take anything
Every time
Short are the moments, short are the days,
Short, gray nights,
Long shame
The moments are short,
The moments are short,
I have short moments
Briefly, I'll stay today,
A little outburst
My thoughts are short,
My dreams are too short
Short are the moments
Short are the moments
Moments are short
Three meters above the ground,
The day passes
It does not measure time,
Does not count wounds
I'm in hibernation,
I'll outlive the time
I'll wait here for you,
A few years
Again further,
I go further,
And I take nothing,

Every time
Short are the moments, short are the days,
Short, gray nights,
Long shame
The moments are short,
The moments are short,
I have short moments
Briefly, I'll stay today,
A little outburst
My thoughts are short,
My dreams are too short
Short are the moments
Short are the moments
Moments are short
You bring me so many faces,
So many maps,
I can't count you on my fingers,
As if falling,
In a dream I have no chance
I'd rather sleep through the whole world,
The whole world,
The whole world!
Short are the moments, short are the days,
Short, gray nights,
Long tears
Short are the moments
Short are the moments
These moments are short
Briefly, I'll stay today,
A little outburst
My thoughts are short,
My dreams are too short
Short are the moments
Short are the moments
Moments are short
Short moments
Ooooh,
Short moments
Ooooh,
Short moments

Short moments

Ooooh,
