

Heavy is the Crown – Daughtry

Never needed any reason
To find deliverance
Like a cancer running through my veins, oh
It's never gonna give in
See them march like lambs to the slaughter
Toy soldiers line up on the altar
I was never meant to drink that water
They'll remember me, when I'm underground
Heavy is the crown
Never falter, never let them bleed you out
I'll be still standing when they try to
Bring my castle down
I'll never bow down
Heavy is the crown
When the weight of the world crashing
Pushing you closer to the edge
(closer to the edge)
You find a way to get a little bit stronger
To fight off the demons, yeah
See them march like lambs to the slaughter
Toy soldiers line up on the altar
I'll rise, hell or high water
And you'll remember me, when I'm underground
Heavy is the crown
Never falter, never let them bleed you out
I'll be still standing when they try to
Bring my castle down
I'll never bow down
Heavy is the crown
Everything will fade away
Yeah, nothing in this world is meant to stay
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown, oh
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown, oh
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown, oh
Heavy is the crown
Heavy is the crown

Never falter, never let them bleed you out
I'll be still standing when they try to
Bring my castle down
I'll never bow down
Heavy is the crown
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown, oh
(heavy is the crown)
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown, oh
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown, oh
(heavy is the crown)
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown, oh
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown, oh
Heavy is the crown, heavy is the crown
