

No. – Dawid Podsiadło

I'm the most little innocent liar you have known

Though you're giving me a whole lot of your love I can feel, I can almost feel that I'm there

Touching the gate of your mind telling you I'm bad

And I just want you to know, know, know, know
You are too kind to be fooled like that That's why I will be honest love, my love, love, love You deserve to meet a better men

I'm a crook, I'm a fraud,
I'm a shark, a deceiver While you're sweet and you're good all the beauty you deliver I will only break your heart Like I did it in the past

That's why I want you to know, know, know, know
You should realize who I really am I really mean it's real love, love
I told you so you could finally see

And I'm on the street again the only place Which welcomes me with open arms and gives me a warm farewells
I think it's time for me to be a decent man Well, hello girl, I'd like to know what is your name

I don't want you to know, know, know, know
You have just been caught into the sweetest trap I'm afraid that I can't let you go, go, go, go go go go go go Until I feel bad 'bout lying again
